

Understanding Our Military Family Experience Assembly

November 11th, 2019 10:00am at ARGS

Attention all local military families, ARGS veterans, and enlisted alumni: we're planning to present a slide show during the upcoming November 11th, 2019 10:00am assembly at ARGS. This is a call for you to share with us your photos that demonstrate your military pride. Please email us your pictures at the following email address:

umex@args.us

This assembly is a project to help classrooms and communities to better understand the Military Family Experience, as endorsed by an initiative from the National Humanities Center. Stay posted for further information to participate in this event.
