

Summer Reading assignment for English 11cc 2022
Ms Smith.

Your summer reading assignment is the graphic memoir They Called Us Enemy by George Takei.

The least expensive version is available via amazon.com, but you can also find it at bookshop.org, Barnes and Noble, and directly from the publisher, Top Shelf Productions.

In addition, it is available via the public library system as an e-book.
You'll want to have a copy for the first few days of school.

After you've read They Called Us Enemy, there is a two-part written assignment. Please do all your own work. DO NOT USE ONLINE SOURCES FOR ANY OF THIS. I am curious as to what you are thinking and I'm interested in how you write. This isn't about being right or wrong. I want to know how the book affected you as well as your experience reading a graphic memoir.

1. Reading Response.

You are to post to Canvas (our LMS for English 11cc; we will not be using Schoology. You will be sent instructions about how to access Canvas later this summer! Check your email. If you have trouble accessing Canvas, we will be going over that on the first day of school. Be sure to bring your Chromebooks or laptops with you!

- What was your overall reaction to reading this book?
- Choose one page of the book. Explain how the words and images work together to create meaning/get you to feel something. Be sure to record which page you are discussing.

2. They Called Us Enemy gives us an intimate look into an important part of George Takei's life. Write your own personal narrative that gives me a glimpse into your life. Choose an incident that you think reveals something about who you are as a person. Write a 2 page personal narrative that brings that incident to life. Feel free to use dialogue and description. Help me to experience this memory! Please print your narrative and bring with you on the first day of school.

OPTIONAL: You may choose to do this as a four (4)-panel (minimum) graphic narrative.
